

- What is the highest rented family movies?

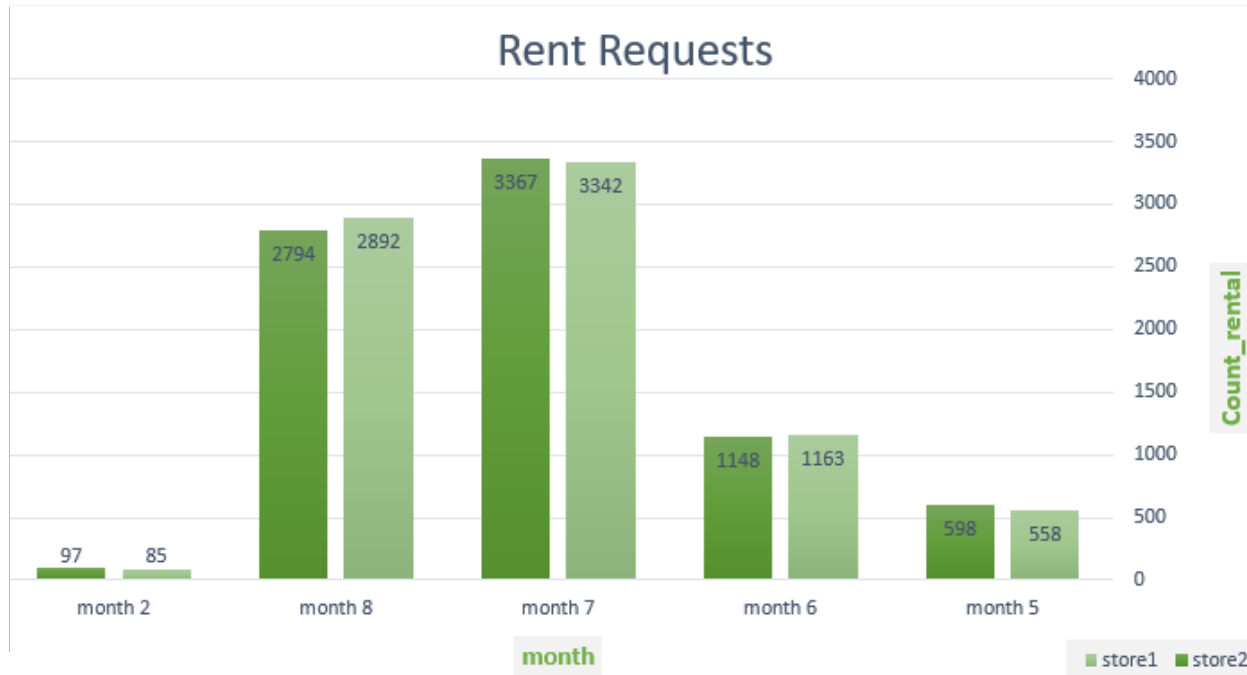

Families prefer to watch animated films more frequently than music and other genres, as can be shown.

- What is the average category of family friendly films?

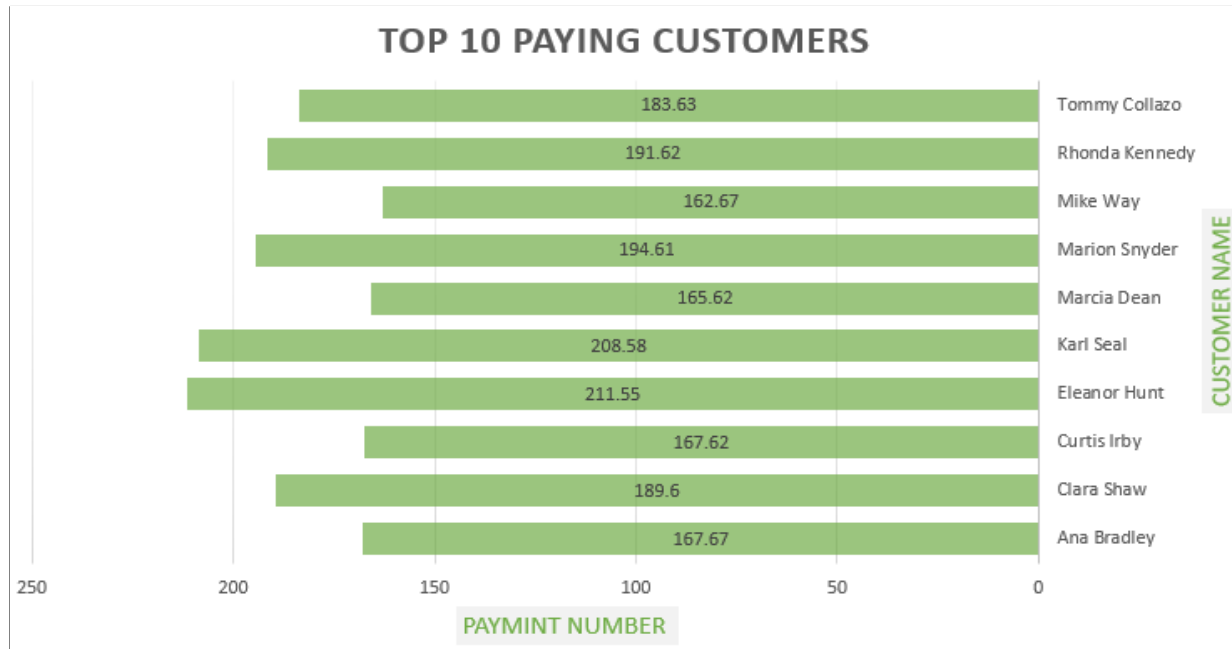

The average of the family-friendly film category may be seen because the percentages of the six genres are quite close to one another.

- What is the number of rent requests between the two stores 1 and 2 ?

For all years, we can observe how many requests there were to rent in stores. due to the fact that the seventh month has the most requests.

- What are the top 10 paying customers?

The graph reveals the names of the top 10 clients who made monthly payments to the company in 2007. Throughout the year, Eleanor Hunt made the largest payment in the company.